Sharing Photo Favorites with the Photographer (Volume Discounts)

You can now make and share a list of your favorites with the photographer to inquire about volume pricing (this can also be used to share photos with friends or family). To make your favorites list:

- Mouse over each chosen image for a roll-over menu which allows you to add to favorites (or click to check the small circles that appear upon mousing over thumbnails in the gallery view, and then select the “add to favorites option” just above the thumbnails)
- "My Favorites" will appear top left of the page, just above the UltiPhotos by Kevin LeClaire text -- click to manage this collection and "Share" it (Share button top right)
- To get a quote on a volume discount, share your list with the photographer and mention desired sizes and products (e.g. prints or digital downloads) to the form that pops up, enter your email address then click send.
- Photographer will respond directly to the email address you provide.
